

BLUE JAYS 2025

On Saturday, June 21, 42 CUPE 5100 members made their way back to the Rogers Centre to see the Toronto Blue Jays in action that afternoon! Plans for the bus did not work out BUT all those that made it by their own means had a great time! Another win by our Jays, Thanks Mike for organizing this and looking forward to our 2026 trip! FYI, GO train has a weekend special of $10.00 for the 2-day weekend...that's right, $10! Who knew.....

SAVE THE

Monday, September 1 It's our annual entry in the Brantford & District Labour Council Soap Box Derby. Change of location for this year only due to road work. Join us at the top of Elgin Street between Stanley & Rawdon Street. CUPE 5100 will have an info table set up again, and our revamped soap box derby car! Registration takes place at 8 a.m., race starts at 9:00 a.m. FREE HOT DOG BBQ for ALL!

Saturday, October 18 is the Waterford Pumpkinfest Parade 2025! Come out and join your social committee and executive as we walk the parade route after decorating our float! Decorating starts at 10:30 and the parade at approximately 12:30 pm.

CUPE 5100 FAMILY CHRISTMAS OPEN HOUSE will take place on Saturday, December 6 at our union office in Brantford from 11 until 3. Fun activities again this year including decorating your ornaments, cookie decorating, and gift bags from Santa for all those under the age of 16. We booked Santa early this year and he's arriving for 12 noon until 3. Adam will be cooking up a storm at the barbecue again this year which will be from 12 noon until 2/2:30 p.m.

BRANTFORD BULLDOGS! December 14, 2025 & January 17, 2026 Another CUPE 5100 group event will be taking place. Watch for your email and get your tickets (including payment) in early!

Your social committee is working on some other exciting events for 2026 so please watch your email for that information coming your way! (Blue Jays, Kitchener-Waterloo Oktoberfest, Burning Kiln, CUPE 5100 Family BBQ is returning)
